

WE WOULD LIKE TO REMIND YOU OF THE SERVICES AVAILABLE FROM YOUR FAMILY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (FAP) PROVIDED BY KGA, INC. THIS PROGRAM IS FUNDED BY THE FABRY SUPPORT AND INFORMATION GROUP, THE NATIONAL FABRY DISEASE FOUNDATION, AND THE NATIONAL GAUCHER FOUNDATION THROUGH A GRANT PROVIDED BY GENZYME CORPORATION.

The FAP is a free, confidential service available to Fabry and Gaucher patients and their families.

The program offers short-term counseling, resources, consultation, and referrals for stress and personal issues.

Here are just a few examples of how the Family Assistance Program can help.

Interested in learning simple stress management techniques?

Our counselors are specialists in teaching these skills.

Feeling depressed?

Talking to an FAP counselor can help.

Wondering how you will ever be able to retire?

Speak to our specialists about the financial, legal, and emotional sides of retirement.

Worried about poor eating habits?

Talk with one of our nutritionists about healthy eating or weight management.

Not sure if you need a lawyer?

Talk to our lawyers about your situation and get a referral to a specialist as needed.

Are you expecting?

The FAP can provide resources and information on pregnancy, adoption and childcare.

Experiencing relationship troubles?

Talk to one of our counselors about individual or couples counseling.

Concerned with Elder Care Issues?

Our counselors have wide ranging experience and access to resources.

The FAP recognizes that promoting balance in your life supports wellness and minimizes stress.

FAP counselors are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
