

An Educational Webinar Series

for the

North American Fabry Community

Thursday, September 16, 2010

7:00 – 8:00 pm EDT

(6:00 pm CT, 4:00 pm PT)

National
FABRY DISEASE
Foundation

canadian fabry association l'association canadienne de fabry

From the Inside Out and the Outside In: Recognizing and Reducing the Signs and Symptoms of Fabry

- From angiokeratomas, eye abnormalities, pain, and GI signs to renal, cardiac and CNS involvement
- Sharing personal stories of Fabry diagnosis
- Diagnostic tests for understanding and managing Fabry disease
- The role of kidney biopsies in diagnosing, managing and researching Fabry
- How to talk to your Fabry specialist about managing signs and symptoms

Panelists:

- Darren Bidulka, President, Canadian Fabry Association (CFA)
- Colleen McNeil, RN, BN, Nurse Clinician for Lysosomal Storage Disorders, Alberta Children's Hospital
- "N.F.," woman affected with Fabry
- Durhane Wong-Rieger, President, Canadian Organization for Rare Disorders (CORD), Moderator

To register:

<https://www2.gotomeeting.com/register/472781555>

Webinar 1: August 11, 2010 7-8pm ET

Webinar 2: September 16, 2010, 7-8 pm ET

Webinar 3: September 28, 2010 7-8pm ET

Recordings of previous webinars can be found at www.resourcerepository.org

This webinar series is a collaboration of the Fabry Support & Information Group, the National Fabry Disease Foundation, the Canadian Fabry Association, Canadian Organization for Rare Disorders, National Organization for Rare Disorders and the Genetic Alliance.

It is supported by an educational grant from Amicus Therapeutics Patient Advocacy.

