

Rare New England and Cambrooke Therapeutics Present:

“Improving Health Care Experiences in the Rare Disease Community”

An informational and support opportunity targeted toward patients and families living with rare diseases.

When: November 10, 2018

Where: Cambrooke Therapeutics, Ayer, MA

Time: 8AM to 5:30PM

Registration Fee: $30.00

Register: Eventbrite

For more info visit www.rarenewengland.org

Contact us at Info@rarenewengland.org

Teen Event Too!

RNE is partnering with Next Steps to bring a day of good conversations, games and fun for teens and young adults living with rare diseases!

We thank our generous sponsors!

SANOFI GENZYME

 RECORDATI RARE DISEASES
 GROUP Focused on the Few™

 Stealth
 BIOTHERAPEUTICS

 DINNO HEALTH Acton Pharmacy

Walmart

Speakers:

- Dr. Mark Korson, VMP Genetics, RNE Board Member
- John Campbell, GlaxoSmithKline, RNE Board Member
- Dr. Amel Karaa, Mass General Hospital, RNE Board Member
- Lisa Deck, SistersatHeart, RNE Volunteer
- Joy Buzzell, Epilepsy Foundation New England
- Karen Volle, New England Regional Genetics Network
- Rebecca Jennings, Cambrooke Therapeutics
- Amy Camerlin, Angel Flight NE
- Dr. Sharon Space, The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp
- Quita Christison, Next Steps
- Julie McKinney, Exceptional Lives